

Cape Ann 8th-11th Grade High School Athletic Scholarship

The JJ Nicastro Foundation gives back to Cape Ann in a way that no other foundation has. The foundation sponsors worthy high school students throughout their high school careers in school endorsed extracurricular activities. Students from 8th-11th grade are eligible to apply for this scholarship. This scholarship covers any fees and expenses recipients may incur such as user fees.

Include the following with your application:

- A transcript of grades for the current school year
- A brief letter stating your interest in receiving this award, why you deserve it and the activities or athletic programs you've been involved in
- A recommendation letter from a mentor, supporting you for this award
- Need of financial assistance recommended
- Applicant must have a positive outlook and demonstrate kindness and a caring attitude toward others

The scholarship will be awarded to multiple students the board of directors feel are most worthy.

Those who are chosen will need to read and sign an agreement, along with a parent or legal guardian, stating they will abide by specific requirements to maintain this honorable scholarship at an award dinner before the school year begins.

Application deadline is June 1st 2011!!!
